Dear Admiral Rickover:

Thank you very much for your letter of 12 December concerning the U.S.S. Theodore Roosevelt.

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in bringing this to my attention and I want to express my sincere congratulations for the excellent progress made by the U. S. Navy in this particular field.

With my best wishes for the holiday season.

Sincerely,

CARE OF FLEET POST OFFICE

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

At Sea

December 12, 1960

Dear Mr. Dulles:

We are returning to San Francisco Bay from the first sea trials of the USS THEODORE ROOSEVELT, the third nuclear powered submarine built by the Mare Island Naval Shipyard and the first Polaris ballistic missile launching submarine built on the West Coast.

The THEODORE ROOSEVELT is our fourth Polaris launching submarine and the fifteenth nuclear powered submarine to join the United States Fleet.

Sincerely,

H. G. Rickover
